NATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: Designation of a Deputy Commissioner, U.S.
Component of the SALT Standing Consultative Commission

Now that Robert W. Buchheim has been named U.S. SCC Commissioner, we also need a new Deputy Commissioner, vice Brigadier General Serio, who withdrew from this position incidental to his reassignment in June 1977.

In accordance with NSDM 198, and also the draft Presidential Directive now agreed upon among the interested agencies to replace NSDM 198, the Deputy Commissioner is to be designated by the President upon recommendation of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Defense, the Director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Director of Central Intelligence.

I recommend that Rear Admiral Edward F. Welch, Jr., USN, be designated SCC Deputy Commissioner. Admiral Welch is at present Deputy Director, International Negotiations Division, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Vice Admiral Patrick J. Hannifin, USN, Director, Joint Staff, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has affirmed the availability of Admiral Welch to participate in the next SCC session.

By sending a copy of this memo to Secretaries Vance and Brown, JCS Chairman Brown and DCI Turner, I am inviting them to support this designation with recommendations of their own addressed to you.
